How the LEA will Ensure Continuity of Services?

We are a single charter school LEA. Continuity of services are provided through the use of ESSER funds which include funding for learning deficits caused by distance learning; daily classes in Social Emotional Learning (SEL) for all students; services of a social worker to assist in meeting mental health needs; and a continuation of the National

Safe Return to In-Person Instruction and Continuity of Services Plan (ARP Act)

School Lunch Program which provides breakfast and lunch to all students at no charge. A no fee after school program is available to all students.

Students' Needs:

Academic Needs	Renaissance Star provides an evaluation system to identify student learning loss and provide prescriptive suggestions to redeem the loss. Acquisition of ESSA approved math and ELA curricula and class sizes of less than 18 are in place along with the services of interventionists to meet student needs.
Social, Emotional and Mental Health Needs	SEL Classes daily for all students. ESSER funds support a social worker to meet social, emotional and mental health needs of subgroups such as special education, EL students, low income students, and chronically absent students.
Other Needs (which may include student health and food services)	National School Lunch Program provides breakfast and lunch at no cost to all students.

Staff Needs:

Social, Emotional and Mental Health Needs	Administration checks with staff regarding needs and provide SEL sessions specifically for staff as needed or requested by staff. Administration has also provided Breathworks sessions for staff at no charge to them with a professional.
Other Needs	LEA continues to check in regularly with staff to find out their needs and how they can assist.
